Teacher of D & T

Full Time and Permanent

We are looking to recruit an outstanding Design and Technology Teacher who is passionate about their subject to join our well-resourced and supportive department. The position will involve teaching at Key Stage 3 and 4 across a range of Design Technology areas including Engineering and Food.

The D & T teacher will be responsible for planning and delivering the highest quality lessons and achieving excellent results for their students, instilling in them a love for the subject and a desire to learn. The role will provide the opportunity to help develop an engaging and challenging curriculum. The applicant should have excellent subject knowledge and should be willing to be an integral part of the design and development of the Design and Technology curriculum.

Perryfields is a successful 11-19 school and was graded as 'Good' by Ofsted in January 2018. The school is over-subscribed, with an excellent record for both academic excellence and strong pastoral care. The successful candidate would benefit from a thorough professional development programme and strong support from the senior leadership team, with the potential and opportunity for career progression.

This is an excellent opportunity for an NQT or a teacher in the early stages of their career. All NQTs are supported by an extensive induction programme.

The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of young people and expects all members of staff to share this commitment. The below documents must be read prior to applying for this role (available on the school website in the policies section) and will be factored into interviews:

Part One of Keeping Children Safe in Education (2016)

Safeguarding Policy and Child Protection Policy

Code of Conduct for Teaching and Support Staff

Enhanced DBS (with list checks) is required for this post.

Application forms and further details are available from the school on 0121 421 7979 or email beverly.parker@perrys.org.uk

Closing date of applications: Monday 8th May 2018 12.30pm

Interviews will be held week commencing 7th May 2018
