Dear Parent/Carer

Partial Closure of Perryfields High School

As you are aware, due to the absence of over 25 staff, Perryfields had to take the difficult decision yesterday to enforce a partial closure for some students, including Year 11. We felt with their maturity and level of work already available online for them, they were the best equipped for independent study.

We appreciate what a difficult time this is for your child amid the unexpected announcement of the cancellation of exams. Therefore, we would like to confirm that as soon as the school is allowed to reopen, all Year 11s will be invited back for a celebration assembly and as it stands, the prom will still go ahead in July. If the prom had to be postponed, it would be rearranged for as soon as possible.

We will continue to follow the guidance and advice from the Government, providing you with updates via the school website, and when we have any information regarding when the school can reopen, via text message and our social media platforms.

Thank you for your understanding and ongoing support whilst we continue to navigate this challenging period.

Yours sincerely,

Ian Barton
